Competition Introduction For questions, concerns and to register contact Maxime Brinck-Croteau: max_bc@fencingontario.ca or Lucie Hamelin: president@fencingontario.ca	Designed for coaches who wish to enhance their repertoire of wheelchair fencing skills and who are thinking of registering their athletes for competitions. This 3 day workshop offers a good introduction to the competitive sports environment. Coaches look at planning, athlete support and improvement of competitive skills, and green and blue armband content. The candidate coaches are asked to master the technical content of the CFF green armband. The candidate coaches will also be offered a detailed overview of the rules governing the competition environment in fencing.*
Competition Development For questions, concerns and to register contact Maxime Brinck-Croteau: max_bc@fencingontario.ca or Lucie Hamelin: president@fencingontario.ca	Addressing senior coaches who work with provincial and national team athletes, this multi-sport, fencing-specific workshop offers thoughtful training focused on the development of competitive athletes, based on their age, age categories and specialty (foil, sabre or epee). Participants learn how to manage a competitive sport program, how to effectively address sport psychology and ethics issues, and to analyze and evaluate skills and performance.*
